2011 Year in Review

Jesse Cnockaert The Chronicle

June

On June 12, Argyle Presbyterian Church, Crinan, celebrated its 150th anniversary. The Canada Post strike stopped mail locally as well as across the country. Canada Post's lease on the building they used as their postal facility in West Lorne expired, leading to the implementation of community mailboxes throughout West Lorne.

July

The Arts & Cookery Bank in West Lorne celebrated their first anniversary. On July 10, Rodney Kiwanis Fishing Derby in Port Glasgow turned ten years old. The renovated Dutton Pool was open in time for a Canada Day swim. The West Elgin RAM Rodeo returned to Downie Line July 22-24, in the middle of a Heat Alert covering Elgin County.
